Last, but certainly not least is one of our newest Stonington Borough, CT shopkeepers, Adrienne Pratt of Porkchopstick Studios.

Adrienne is a painter who works primarily with acrylics. She gets inspiration from her cats and the coast, and you'll see her love of animals in her work. It's pure joy, with a hint of humor and always bright and colorful.

Don't miss her at the Art Walk this Saturday (or Sunday, depending on the weather). She'll be in a tent on Water Street, out in front of her Borough studio and retail destination, Ship Shape Shop at 119 Water Street.
